XIV Russia/CIS/Baltic/Japan Symposium on Ferroelectricity

11-15, June 2018, Saint-Petersburg, Russia
St. Petersburg

St. Petersburg is called Venice of the North, and in fact it is “cultural capital” of Russia. The magnificent Hermitage and Russian Museum can give a flavour of the cultural image of the city, where you can find a numerous theatres and the famous Russian ballet. Famous Russian czars residences – Pavlovsk, Peterhof and Pushkin; and unforgettable boat trip through river Neva and the city channels.
Ioffe Institute

Peter the Great Saint-Petersburg Polytechnic University
The centenary of Ioffe Institute 1918-2018

1918 — The State X-ray and radiology Institute including Physical-Technical Department was established

1921 — Department was transformed to the independent Institution

1960 — Institute was named as Ioffe Institute

L. D. Landau in started in the Ioffe Institute

I.V. Kurchatov – Rochelle salt

G.A. Smolensky – Relaxors, multiferroics
LOCAL CONFERENCE COMMITTEES:

Scientific committee Chairs:
   Alexander Sigov (MIREA, Moscow, Russia)

Program Committee Chairs:
   Sergey Vakhrushev (Ioffe Institute, St.Petersburg, Russia)

Organizing Committee Chairs:
   Ekaterina Koroleva (Ioffe Institute, St.Petersburg, Russia)

Scientific secretary:
   Daria Andronikova (Ioffe Institute, S.Petersburg, Russia)

FEES AND ACCOMMODATION

The conference fee cannot be announced yet but organizers are striving to achieve the lowest cost (approx. 450€) consistent with modern accommodation on the site. We’ll provide cheap accommodation for young participants.
WELCOME TO ST. PETERSBURG !!!