

Invitation

The Organizing Committee cordially invites you to participate in the "10th Japan-Korea Symposium on Catalysis". It will be held in Matsue, Japan during May 10th-13th, 2005. The symposium is held every two years. The aims of the Symposium are to share the latest research results and ideas and to boost the cooperative relations among catalytic scientists and engineers between the two countries. The scope of the symposium will cover all aspects of catalytic research. We look forward with pleasure to welcoming you in Matsue.

*Yasuaki Okamoto,
Chair of the Symposium*

Student Program : May 10th (Tue.), 2005

Main Symposium : May 11th (Wed.) -12th (Thr.)

Excursion: May 13th (Fri.)

Scientific Program

The scientific program will consist of a pre-symposium for students (one day) and a main symposium (two days) including plenary, invited and contributed lectures and poster sessions. A special session will be devoted to invited lectures from catalytic industries in Japan and Korea. The contributed oral presentations will be 25 minutes long including the discussion. The official language of the all submitted papers and presentation is English. The detailed programs and information will be noticed on the official symposium webpage (<http://www.ipc.shimane-u.ac.jp/catalyst/jkscat10>) as soon as it is ready.

Call for Papers

Contributing authors are requested to submit an abstract that includes: the title of paper, author(s), and e-mail address of corresponding author, affiliations, the text of 150-200 words, and preferred mode of presentation (oral or poster). The abstracts should be submitted by e-mail as attached files (MS Word or PDF format) to Dr. Takeshi Kubota (kubotake@riko.shimane-u.ac.jp) at Shimane University for Japanese participants or to Prof. Seong Ihl Woo (siwoo@kaist.ac.kr) for Korean participants. Deadline for receiving abstracts is January 28th (Friday), 2005. Authors whose abstracts are accepted by the scientific committee will be asked to submit a 2-pages extended abstract by March 18th (Friday), which will be included in the Proceeding.

The proceedings of the symposium will be published after a regular scientific review as a special issue of Catalysis Today, which will include invited lectures and oral/poster papers. Those who wish to publish a paper in the proceedings should submit their manuscripts during the session of the symposium.

Registration

Those planning to attend the symposium are requested to complete and return the preliminary registration form by March 18th (Friday), 2005 to Dr. Takeshi Kubota by e-mail (kubotake@riko.shimane-u.ac.jp) or FAX (+81-852-32-6294).

Japanese participants are recommended to pay the fee via on line bank transfer. On-site payment by cash (Korean Won) at the registration desk is allowed for Korean participants as long as they submit the registration form by March 18th, 2005. No refunds can be made for cancellations after April 30th, 2005.
